Host City Information - Coimbatore

Coimbatore, often referred to as the "Manchester of South India," is one of the major cities in the Indian state of Tamil Nadu. Spanning an area of approximately 246.75 km² (95.27 sq. mi), it is situated on the banks of the Noyyal River and nestled amidst the lush Western Ghats. With an average elevation of 411 m (1,348 ft), the city is surrounded by scenic hills and is known for its pleasant climate and proximity to natural attractions.

Coimbatore has an estimated annual export turnover of ₹25,000 crore ($3 billion), with products ranging from textiles and machinery to software. The city contributes significantly to Tamil Nadu's GDP, with an annual economic output estimated at ₹65,000 crore ($8 billion).

According to the 2011 Census of India, Coimbatore is the second-most populous city in Tamil Nadu, with a population of approximately 1.6 million residents within the city and over 2 million in the metropolitan region. Renowned for its thriving textile, manufacturing, and IT industries, Coimbatore boasts a robust economy with significant contributions to Tamil Nadu's growth and development.
